CATCHMARK JOINS LEADING CONSERVATION, ENVIRONMENTAL AND OTHER FORESTRY ORGANIZATIONS TO ESTABLISH COMMON GROUND ON THE ROLE OF PRIVATE WORKING FORESTS AS A NATURAL CLIMATE SOLUTION

ATLANTA – November 13, 2020 – CatchMark Timber Trust, Inc. (NYSE: CTT) announced today that the firm has joined with leading conservation and environmental organizations as well as other forestry businesses in “a common vision” to address climate change and ensure sustainable, science-based practices in forest management.

The CEO Principles are a shared vision for increasing the contribution of forests and forest products to climate mitigation from leaders of the environmental, conservation and forest business communities. The signing CEOs recognize that private working forests and forest products can play an important role in mitigating climate change through thoughtful policy, private sector engagement, and investment in rural communities.

Brian M. Davis, CatchMark's Chief Executive Officer, said: “Promoting forest stewardship and sustainability through state of the art management practices is not only integral to CatchMark’s operations and essential for our ongoing business success, but also is critical to the success of our industry and the entire forest sector.”
