SBA Communications Elects Two New Directors

BOCA RATON, Fla., May 7 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- SBA Communications Corporation (Nasdaq: SBAC)("SBA" or the "Company") announced that shareholders of SBA Communications Corporation have elected two new members to its Board of Directors. Jack Langer was elected as a Class II director to serve a three- year term expiring in 2007, and Brian C. Carr was elected as a Class I director to serve the remaining two years of the three-year term of a Class I director expiring in 2006. Shareholders also re-elected Jeffrey A. Stoops, SBA's Chief Executive Officer, as a Class II director to serve a three-year term expiring in 2007.

Mr. Langer, a private investor, was most recently employed by Lehman Brothers, where he served as Managing Director and the Global Co-Head of the Media Group. Previously he served as a Managing Director and the Head of Media Group at both Bankers Trust & Company and Kidder Peabody & Company.

Mr. Carr is currently Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of American Esoteric Laboratories, a company engaged in advanced clinical laboratory testing. Previously he served as President of AmeriPath, an anatomic pathology laboratory company, and as founder, President and Chief Executive Officer of Inform DX, a pathology services company that was acquired by AmeriPath.

SBA is a leading independent owner and operator of wireless communications infrastructure in the United States. SBA generates revenue from two primary businesses -- site leasing and site development services. The primary focus of the Company is the leasing of antenna space on its multi-tenant towers to a variety of wireless service providers under long-term lease contracts. Since it was founded in 1989, SBA has participated in the development of over 25,000 antenna sites in the United States.

For additional information about SBA, please contact Pam Kline, Vice President of Capital Markets, at (561) 995-7670 or visit our website at www.sbasite.com.

SOURCE SBA Communications Corporation