2026-11-13

Three Women Selected from More Than 12,000 Applicants in Nationwide Search

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Torrid Holdings Inc. ("Torrid" or the "Company") (NYSE: CURV), a leading fashion destination for women sizes 8 to 30, today announced Zoya, Karina, and Jordy as the three winners of its 2026 Torrid Casting Call.

Selected from over 12,000 applicants nationwide, the three women stood out for their individuality, confidence and authentic representation of the Torrid community. Each winner will have the opportunity to be featured in a 2027 Torrid campaign photoshoot, receive a $5,000 cash prize and take home a Torrid wardrobe valued at $15,000.

The 2026 Casting Call invited women across the country to step into the spotlight and show the world what makes them unique. Following an initial selection process and a public voting period that garnered more than 45,000 votes, the top 15 finalists were invited to Los Angeles in November for an exclusive Model Boot Camp co-hosted by this year's Casting Call director and Torrid model partner, Candice Huffine.

Throughout the experience, finalists participated in modeling mentorship, a professional photoshoot and digital content creation workshops, before being evaluated by Torrid judges on their modeling skills, online presence, professionalism, creativity and innovation.
