Adtalem Global Education Named One of America's Most Responsible Companies by Newsweek

2020-12-10

Company recognized for ongoing commitment to environmental, social and corporate governance initiatives

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Adtalem Global Education Inc. (NYSE: ATGE), a leading workforce solutions provider, has been named one of America's Most Responsible Companies 2021 by Newsweek, a premier news magazine, and Statista Inc., the world-leading statistics portal and industry ranking provider.

America's Most Responsible Companies were selected based on key performance indicators derived from corporate social responsibility (CSR) reports, sustainability reports and corporate citizenship reports, as well as an independent survey of U.S. residents. Adtalem was included among 400 companies that spanned 14 industries.

"Our more than 6,700 employees globally are committed to caring for the communities in which we operate, providing quality learning and working opportunities for our students and members, and conducting business in a transparent, ethical and responsible manner," said Lisa Wardell, chairman and CEO of Adtalem Global Education. "Being named to this list underscores our overarching philosophy of stewardship. The team at Adtalem is honored to receive this recognition. We will continue our work to improve the lives of our stakeholders and become better corporate citizens."
