

TRINET GROUP, INC. STOCKHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS POLICY

Statement of Policy

TriNet Group, Inc. (the “Company”) has adopted this Stockholder Communications Policy (this “Policy”) to establish the procedures for, and to promote, stockholder communications with the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”). This Policy shall be posted on the Company’s website.

Communication Procedures

Stockholders and other interested parties wishing to communicate with the Board, or any individual director(s), regarding any matter may send a written communication using the following procedures:

1. All communications should be in writing and addressed to the director with whom communication is desired (or to the Chairperson of the Board if the communication is directed to the entire Board) as follows:

c/o Chief Compliance Officer
TriNet Group, Inc.
One Park Place, Suite 600
Dublin, California 94568

Communications to our Chief Compliance Officer may be sent by e-mail to chiefcomplianceofficer@trinet.com.

2. All communications must state the number of shares of Company stock owned by the person(s) making the communication.
3. The Company’s Chief Compliance Officer will review each communication received. The Chief Compliance Officer will forward, or summarize and forward, such communication to the Board, or to the individual director(s) to whom the communication is addressed, as the Chief Compliance Officer deems appropriate. The Chief Compliance Officer will discard and will not deliver any mass mailing, job inquiry, business solicitation, inappropriately directed product or service complaint, or any other communication that the Chief Compliance Officer deems frivolous, hostile, threatening or similarly inappropriate. The Chief Compliance Officer will periodically provide a summary of all such discarded communications to the Board or to the individual director(s) to whom such communications are addressed.

Other Concerns or Complaints

Any concerns or complaints about the Company’s accounting, internal controls or auditing matters may also be submitted in compliance with the Company’s Business Ethics and Code of Conduct Policy.
