Fredrikstad, 26 October 2017: Europris (OSE: EPR) today opened a new store in Langevåg on the island of Sula, in the county of Møre and Romsdal. Today's store opening brings the network to a total store count of 246.

Europris has opened seven new stores so far in 2017. Following these openings, the company has a remaining pipeline of four new stores confirmed for 2017.

- Sula is an island outside the city of Ålesund with some 9 000 inhabitants. We look forward to being able to offer the local community in Langevåg, the island of Sula as well as the wider Ålesund area with a lot of great offers and our plethora of quality products.

- We are especially excited to bring our unique Christmas assortment to the doorstep of the islanders as we prepare for the important Christmas season to kick off in the country as a whole, says CEO Pål Wibe.

Europris' extensive network of 246 stores covers all counties in Norway. Continued expansion of the store portfolio in both rural and urban areas is an important part of Europris' current growth strategy.
