Ledgible and BitGo Partner to Empower Institutional Crypto Clients with End-to-End Tax Compliance Solutions

2025-08-08

BitGo Clients can now seamlessly streamline tax compliance while accelerating digital asset innovation and growth.

Ledgible, the leading digital asset tax and accounting platform for enterprises and institutions, today announced its partnership with BitGo, the leading infrastructure provider of digital asset solutions. The collaboration brings best-in-class tax reporting and compliance solutions to BitGo clients, rounding out BitGo's offering with full tax lifecycle support.

With the rapid institutional adoption of digital assets, compliance has become a critical pillar in any digital asset strategy. Through this partnership, BitGo clients gain direct access to Ledgible's proven tax information reporting and accounting solutions, built to meet the demands of enterprises, fund managers, and financial institutions. From digital asset cost basis tracking to Form 1099 and regulatory reporting, Ledgible simplifies the complexities of digital asset tax compliance, enabling BitGo users to focus on innovation and growth.

"As crypto matures, tax compliance is no longer a post-trade afterthought; it's a core component of the digital asset ecosystem," said Kell Canty, CEO of Ledgible. "Our partnership with BitGo ensures that institutions have a seamless path from secure custody to compliant tax reporting. We're proud to support BitGo's clients with the tools they need to meet evolving regulatory requirements while scaling their digital asset operations with confidence."

This strategic partnership makes it easy for BitGo customers to integrate tax workflows into their existing operations by leveraging Ledgible's integrations and API infrastructure. Whether clients are managing staking, trading, or custody, Ledgible ensures visibility and compliance across the full digital asset lifecycle.

"Regulatory clarity is accelerating institutional adoption of digital assets, and with it comes the demand for robust, auditable tax infrastructure. By partnering with Ledgible, BitGo is equipping our clients with integrated tax and accounting solutions that not only meet today's compliance standards, but also scale with tomorrow's innovation," said Chen Fang, CRO at BitGo. "This collaboration reinforces our commitment to helping institutions navigate complex regulatory requirements without slowing down growth or operational agility."

Together, BitGo and Ledgible are building a more complete digital asset infrastructure—one that's secure, scalable, and ready for regulatory scrutiny.
