

Kai Haakon E. Liekefett

Partner, Chair of Shareholder Activism Practice, Sidley Austin LLP

Kai is a partner with Sidley Austin in New York and chairs Sidley's shareholder activism practice. He focuses on advising companies on proxy contests, withhold-the-vote, and other shareholder activism campaigns as well as hostile takeover bids.

Since 2015, Kai has been involved in more than 35 proxy contests, more than any other defense attorney in the U.S. He was recognized in the 2017 and 2018 edition of Chambers USA as one of only seven leading attorneys for Corporate/M&A: Takeover Defense.

Kai has more than 18 years of experience in corporate law in New York, London, Germany, Hong Kong and Tokyo.
