

Mary Frances Turnbull

Senior Vice President, Corporate Access Raymond James and Associates Inc.

Mary is a Senior Vice President in Corporate Access at Raymond James and introduces Raymond James' corporate clients to a targeted group of institutional investors. Mary has spent the majority of her career on the sell side where she has held research, sales and management roles at several investment banks, including Lehman Brothers, Deutsche Bank and Salomon Smith Barney.

An active NIRI member, she is currently on the Annual Conference Committee and the Board of the Florida chapter. She is founder and co-chair of The Women in Capital Markets Symposium (WICM), an annual event devoted to advancing the professional development of women in the capital markets business at Raymond James.

Mary received a BA in economics from Mount Holyoke College, and an MBA in finance from Fordham University