

SandRidge Energy to Acquire Bonanza Creek Energy for $36.00 Per Share in Cash and Stock

- Adds 67,000 contiguous net acres in the oil window of DJ Basin
- Significantly increases inventory of high return, oil-weighted drill-ready projects
- Expected to be accretive to cash flow beginning in 2018
- Maintains low pro forma leverage and strong balance sheet

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Denver, Colorado, November 15, 2017 – SandRidge Energy (NYSE: SD) and Bonanza Creek Energy (NYSE: BCEI) jointly announced today that the two companies have entered into a definitive merger agreement under which SandRidge will acquire all of the outstanding shares of common stock of Bonanza Creek in a cash-and-stock transaction valued at $36.00 per share. The consideration consists of $19.20 in cash and $16.80 of SandRidge shares for each Bonanza Creek share, subject to the collar mechanism described below.

James Bennett, SandRidge’s CEO, said “This acquisition greatly enhances our existing portfolio by adding a deep inventory of drill-ready locations in the DJ Basin of Colorado and is highly complementary to our existing North Park, Northwest STACK and Mississippian assets. The geological and operational characteristics of Bonanza’s Niobrara and Codell locations are analogous to our existing Colorado North Park assets, and we expect to benefit from the expertise of their teams. Overall, we believe this will drive strong risk-adjusted returns in both areas. Likewise, SandRidge will benefit from the greatly increased scale and substantial cost and operational synergies as a result of the transaction. Lastly, the acquisition will be accretive to cash flow per share and will enhance our ability over time to increase cash flow generation of the business.”

Jack Vaughn, Bonanza Creek’s Chairman of the Board, stated “We are pleased to be able to accomplish this combination with SandRidge. This transaction represents an attractive opportunity for our shareholders to monetize a portion of their holdings through the cash consideration as well as to participate in the continued upside of the combined company. We believe our Niobrara and Codell assets and expertise will provide a strong complement to the SandRidge story and are excited to partner with SandRidge in growing the combined company.”

Brian Steck, a Director of Bonanza Creek and Partner of Mangrove Partners, one of Bonanza Creek's largest shareholders, said "Mangrove is happy to support this transaction and believes that Bonanza Creek's high-return inventory in the DJ Basin provides an excellent complement to SandRidge's attractive development opportunities in the NW STACK and North Park Basin. We believe that the sequenced development of these three assets provide an attractive path to create oil-weighted growth for the combined company."
