

SANDRIDGE ENERGY, INC.
ADOPTS SHORT-TERM SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN

Company Reaffirms Commitment to Merger With Bonanza Creek Energy, Inc.

OKLAHOMA CITY, November 27, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- SandRidge Energy, Inc. ("SandRidge" or the "Company") (NYSE: SD) today announced that its Board of Directors (the "Board") has unanimously adopted a short-term shareholder rights plan (the "Rights Plan").

The Rights Plan is designed to protect our shareholders' right to vote, on a fully informed basis, on the proposal to approve the issuance of the Company's common stock in connection with the proposed merger with Bonanza Creek Energy, Inc. (NYSE: BCEI) based on the additional disclosure forthcoming in the Company's proxy materials for the merger. The Board adopted the Rights Plan to ensure that the Board remains in the best position to perform its fiduciary duties, comply with the Company's obligations under its merger agreement with Bonanza Creek, and enable all SandRidge shareholders to realize the long-term value of their investment in the Company. The Rights Plan is designed to deter the acquisition of actual, de facto or negative control of the Company by any person or group without appropriately compensating its shareholders for such control. The Rights Plan is not designed to prevent any action the Board determines to be in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders.

John Genova, Chairman of the Board of SandRidge said, "Today's actions are designed to protect the interests of all of our shareholders and preserve their ability to fully consider all information related to the proposed Bonanza Creek merger -- including information which will be included in our proxy materials -- and vote as they see fit. SandRidge looks forward to continuing to engage in constructive dialogue with shareholders regarding our plans for the business and the compelling strategic opportunity we see with Bonanza Creek."

The Company intends to recommend the ratification of the Rights Plan for approval by its shareholders at the Company's 2018 annual meeting of shareholders. If ratified by the shareholders, the Rights Plan will expire on November 26, 2018. If the Rights Plan is not ratified, then the Rights Plan will terminate and cease to be effective.

The Rights Plan will be triggered only if a person or group of persons acting in concert exceeds beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the Company's common stock. Shareholders who currently have beneficial ownership of over 10% are grandfathered in, but may not acquire additional shares without triggering the Rights Plan.

The Rights Plan, which was adopted by the Board following evaluation and consultation with the Company's advisors, is similar to plans adopted by numerous publicly traded companies. It was not adopted in response to any specific takeover bid. In fact, the Company's shareholders may require the Board to redeem the Rights Plan in the event a fully-financed takeover or exchange offer is made for the Company (a "Qualifying Offer" as defined in the Rights Plan), pursuant to procedures described in the Rights Plan. Moreover, the Rights Plan could potentially preserve the Company's estimated $470 million (as of December 31, 2017) of usable tax net operating loss carryforwards by deterring an "ownership change" under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

While it is SandRidge's policy not to comment on specific discussions with shareholders, the Company has and will continue to welcome all constructive input furthering the goal of enhancing shareholder value and positioning SandRidge as a leading oil and natural gas exploration and production company.

Further details regarding the Rights Plan are contained in a Form 8-K filed by the Company with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on November 27, 2017.

Morgan Stanley is serving as financial advisor to the Company. Vinson & Elkins L.L.P. is serving as legal advisor to the Company.
