

SemGroup Responds to Alinda Capital 13D Filing

Tulsa, Oklahoma – May 13, 2019 – SemGroup® Corporation (NYSE: SEMG) today provided the following statement in response to the schedule 13D filed by Alinda Capital Partners.

SemGroup welcomes regular and thoughtful engagement with its shareholders and seriously considers all suggestions that may enhance shareholder value. The Company values robust communications with shareholders, but does not publicly comment on specific shareholder discussions.

SemGroup's Board and management team are focused on creating shareholder value by seeking to capture strategic growth opportunities while balancing prudent capital management. The Board and management team will continue to evaluate opportunities to de-lever its balance sheet, commercialize and optimize its core assets, and deploy capital across operating areas to generate superior returns for shareholders.

About SemGroup
