

Hamilton Lane Again Named a 'Best Place to Work' by both Pensions & Investments and Central Penn Business Journal

12/10/2018

Seventh consecutive recognition for both awards

BALA CYNWYD, Pa., Dec. 10, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Hamilton Lane (NASDAQ: HLNE) has been named to Pensions & Investments' "Best Places to Work in Money Management" list for 2018. Hamilton Lane is one of only five companies to have been included on the list for seven consecutive years, since Pensions & Investments first began publishing the rankings in 2012.

Additionally, the Bala Cynwyd, Penn.-headquartered firm was also recognized in the top quartile of firms in the "Best Places to Work in PA" for 2018, appearing on the list for the seventh consecutive year.

CEO Mario Giannini said: "Being recognized again this year as a Best Place to Work is a huge honor. To us, these awards are an acknowledgement of the winning culture that we've worked hard to develop and maintain over the last 27 years and, together with our steadfast commitment to our clients, is what sets us apart."

Hamilton Lane has grown significantly in the years since it was first included in these rankings. Today, the firm has more than 350 employees across 15 offices worldwide, and serves more than 450 clients globally. Hamilton Lane was also recently recognized at the Private Equity Exchange Awards in the "Best LP, Global Strategy (over $10B)" category for the second consecutive year.

Pensions & Investments partners with Best Companies Group to conduct the Best Places to Work survey. The assessment is a two-part process including both an employer questionnaire and an employee survey, created to identify and recognize the best employers in the money management industry. The "Best Places to Work in PA" project is a statewide program likewise dedicated to identifying and recognizing Pennsylvania's best employers, also managed by Best Companies Group. Winners are published by the Central Penn Business Journal.
