RECRUITMENT

for a vacant position at DPM Krumovgrad EAD

Mine Surveyor
Production Department

Role Statement: Performs mine surveys at the minesite of DPM Krumovgrad to ensure spatial positioning of sites, define mining volumes in line with the applicable standards, legal provisions and OHS and environmental regulations.

Duties:
- Applies survey methods to ensure the quality of mining operations, in compliance with approved designs, monthly and annual production plans;
- Ensures the maximum and complete mining of mineral resources within the area of his/her competence;
- Controls mining operations to ensure safety within the area of his/her competence;
- Uses survey methods and instruments to monitor technical facilities and/or mine benches;
- Performs surveys and traversing of control stations and polygons;
- Performs reportable monthly surveys, acceptance and reporting of the completed overburden removal works and mining preparation works for Krumovgrad EAD;
- Prepares any required quantity reports, mine survey and geodesy reports and documents for DPM Krumovgrad EAD.

Requirements:
- Higher Education - Mine Survey and Geodesy major
- Driver’s License, Category B
- Working knowledge on 3D applications and MS Office
- Previous experience in working with total station, GNSS and other instruments used for mine surveys and geodesy.
- Very good knowledge in the area of open-pit mining
- Knowledge of the effective government regulations applicable to the mining operations and any applicable open-pit mining regulations;
- Communication skills, responsibility, self-discipline, teamworking.

We offer:
- Employment in a leading international company
- Use of state-of-the-art equipment and tools
- Regular professional training programs and excellent development opportunities
- Competitive salary and attractive benefits.

The position is based in Krumovgrad. Women can apply for the job on an equal footing to men. If you find this opportunity challenging and will be interested in joining a highly proficient and cohesive team, please send your CV and motivation letter to dpmkjobs@dundeeprecious.com.

Deadline for submission of applications: 10.11.2017