American Airlines in Europe

American operates up to 434 weekly flights between Europe and the United States.

Overview
- From its hubs in the United States, American offers connections to nearly 350 cities in over 50 countries worldwide, with approximately 6,700 daily flights.
- American now offers up to 62 daily flights between Europe and Chicago O'Hare (ORD), Charlotte (CLT), Dallas Fort Worth (DFW), Los Angeles (LAX), Miami (MIA), New York (JFK), Philadelphia (PHL) and Raleigh/Durham (RDU).
- American has a dedicated reservations center in Liverpool, England, handling European reservations queries, AAdvantage customers, special assistance and ticketing.
- American has dedicated Admirals Club lounges in London Heathrow, Terminal 3 (LHR) and Paris Charles de Gaulle, Terminal 2A (CDG). American also has a Flagship First Class lounge and an Arrivals Lounge in Heathrow Terminal 3, the only one of its kind in the airline's network.
- Beginning May 6th, 2017, American will launch new seasonal services from Rome Fiumicino Airport (FCO) and Amsterdam Schiphol Airport (AMS) to Dallas/Fort Worth and from Barcelona El Prat Airport (BCN) to Chicago O'Hare.
