Volaris is an ultra-low-cost carrier (ULCC), with point-to-point operations, serving Mexico, the United States and Central America. Volaris offers low base fares to build its market, providing quality service and extensive customer choice. Since beginning operations in March 2006, Volaris has increased its routes from five to 190 and its fleet from four to 78 aircraft. Volaris offers up to 394 daily flight segments on routes that connect 40 cities in Mexico and 26 cities in the United States and Central America with one of the youngest fleet in the Americas. Volaris targets passengers who are visiting friends and relatives (VFR), cost-conscious business people and leisure travelers in Mexico and to select destinations in the United States and Central America. Volaris has received the ESR Award for Corporate Social Responsibility for nine consecutive years. For more information, please visit: www.volaris.com

This release contains statements that may be considered forward looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934. All forward-looking statements, whether made in this release or in future filings or press releases or orally, address matters that involve risks and uncertainties, including in respect of the Company’s prospects for growth and its ongoing access to capital to fund the Company’s business plan, among others. Consequently, changes in the following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those included in the forward-looking statements: market prices of oil & gas, market conditions, applicable regulations, the exchange rate, the Company’s competitiveness and the performance of Mexico’s economy and industry, to mention a few. We do not intend, and do not assume any obligation to update these forward-looking statements.
