Owens Corning Appoints Todd Fister President, Insulation

7/3/2019

TOLEDO, Ohio--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Owens Corning (NYSE: OC) today announced that Todd Fister has been named President, Insulation, effective July 15. Mr. Fister succeeds Julian Francis, who will be stepping down to become President and Chief Executive Officer of Beacon Roofing Supply (NASDAQ: BECN). Mr. Fister will report directly to President and Chief Executive Officer Brian Chambers.

“Julian is a respected leader who has led the transformation of our Insulation portfolio through an expanded geographic focus and a broadened range of technologies spanning the entire temperature spectrum,” Mr. Chambers said. “On behalf of our entire team, I thank Julian for his contributions to growing the business and our company, and wish him all the best in his new role.

“Having served in various management positions at Owens Corning, both in the United States and internationally, Todd is a proven leader with a deep understanding of the company and our Insulation business,” Mr. Chambers added. “Owens Corning today has a global insulation business with new product platforms and significant through-the-cycle earnings power. We are fortunate to have a leader of Todd’s caliber and experience to help us capitalize on enduring global trends and deliver strong results.”

“Our broad product portfolio, and our operational and commercial expertise, make Owens Corning an industry leader across the residential, commercial, and industrial construction markets,” Mr. Fister said. “I am excited to take on this important role and look forward to driving continued growth and performance in our global Insulation business.”

Mr. Fister currently serves as Vice President, Global Insulation and Strategy. Prior to this role, he served as Vice President and Managing Director for European Insulation and Global FOAMGLAS®. Before joining Owens Corning in 2014, he worked in various marketing, strategy and finance positions at MeadWestvaco and Kimberly-Clark. Mr. Fister began his career at Procter & Gamble, where he served in multiple finance roles. He earned a bachelor's degree from Miami University and a Ph.D. from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
