RICHMOND, Va., September 29, 2017 – The Brink's Company (NYSE:BCO), today announced its intent to offer $500 million aggregate principal amount of 10-year senior unsecured notes, subject to market and other conditions. The notes will be general unsecured obligations guaranteed by the company's existing and future U.S. subsidiaries that are guarantors under the new credit facility.

Proceeds from the notes are expected to be used in part to repay the existing revolving credit facility, the existing term loan, certain other existing indebtedness and certain fees and expenses related to the closing of the transactions. The notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("Securities Act") or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements. The notes will be offered in the United States only to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers in reliance on the exception from registration set forth in Rule 144A under the Securities Act and outside the United States to non-U.S. persons pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy the notes, and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale of any notes in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation, or sale would be unlawful.
