RICHMOND, VA., October 5, 2017 – The Brink's Company (NYSE:BCO) today announced the pricing of its 10-year senior unsecured notes in an aggregate principal amount of $600 million, an increase of $100 million over the amount announced previously. The notes will be issued at par, will mature on October 15, 2027 and will bear an annual interest rate of 4.625%. The notes will be general unsecured obligations guaranteed by the company's existing and future U.S. subsidiaries that are to be guarantors under its new credit facility. The offering is expected to close on October 20, 2017 subject to customary closing conditions.

Proceeds from the notes are expected to be used in part to repay the existing revolving credit facility, the existing term loan, certain other existing indebtedness and certain fees and expenses related to the closing of the transactions. Remaining net proceeds are expected to be used for working capital needs, capital expenditures, acquisitions and other general corporate purposes.

The notes will be offered in the United States only to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers in reliance on the exception from registration set forth in Rule 144A under the Securities Act and outside the United States to non-U.S. persons pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy the notes and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale of any notes in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation, or sale would be unlawful.
