

TD SYNnex Recognized by NVIDIA Partner Network as Distribution Partner of the Year in the Americas

3/19/2024

FREMONT, Calif. & CLEARWATER, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- TD SYNnex (NYSE: SNX) today announced it has been selected by the NVIDIA Partner Network (NPN) as the Distribution Partner of the Year in the Americas.

TD SYNnex is being recognized for demonstrating its commitment to building its AI business on the NVIDIA AI platform, with year-over-year growth that underscores its operational excellence in distribution. Close collaboration with NVIDIA and others in the NPN has been critical to building an ecosystem that helps TD SYNnex deliver industry-leading aggregated AI solutions and serve as the destination for AI solutions in the channel.

NPN provides partners across the globe with the expertise required to develop, deploy and maintain world-class accelerated computing solutions designed for today's most demanding machine learning and AI workloads.

"As part of NPN, we've been able to immerse ourselves in the wealth of resources available from NVIDIA as we guide our partners on how to leverage these technologies for growth," said Gary S. Palenbaum, Executive Vice President Sales & Vendor Management at TD SYNnex. "We appreciate the recognition of our continued collaboration, which underscores our commitment to success for both our vendors and our partners in this fast-paced, high-growth area of AI."

"TD SYNnex has embraced all elements of the NVIDIA AI platform, as well as the ecosystem of partners, software ISVs and complementary technologies needed to deliver a complete AI solution," said Geoff Fancher, Vice President of Worldwide Distribution at NVIDIA. "Their results are strong across multiple dimensions, including financial, inventory management, advanced solutions aggregation and partner enablement."

TD SYNnex brings together leading high-growth technologies across security, networking, cloud, data and AI. To learn more about TD SYNnex's NVIDIA offerings, visit <https://www.tdsynnex.com/na/us/nvidia/>.
