

TD SYNEX Completes Acquisition of IPsense's Cloud Migration Business in Brazil

2024-12-04

Acquisition strengthens the position of TD SYNEX and its business partners in the region's digital transformation journey

SÃO PAULO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- TD SYNEX (NYSE: SNX), a leading global distributor and aggregator of solutions for the IT ecosystem, today announced that it has completed its acquisition of the cloud migration business of IPsense, a leading cloud solutions provider specializing in the design, integration and deployment of AWS solutions in Brazil. The addition of IPsense's cloud migration business, paves the way for the creation of a new cloud competency center in Brazil, laying the foundation for broader regional expansion in the future, to help channel partners successfully migrate their customers' workloads to the cloud.

"I am pleased to welcome the talented team from IPsense's cloud migration business to the TD SYNEX family," said Otavio Lazarini, President of TD SYNEX for Latin America and the Caribbean. "The completion of this transaction significantly enhances TD SYNEX's ability to deliver even greater value to our business partners, enabling them to better capitalize on opportunities related to their cloud business. Our plans to establish a cloud competency center underscores our determination to enable our partners and drive their cloud adoption, ensuring they are well positioned to meet the evolving needs of their customers in today's digital world."

As part of the acquisition, TD SYNEX will integrate the IPsense cloud migration business sales model into the two-tier distribution model, fostering partner-to-partner projects, driving collaboration, helping to build stronger alliances and enabling customers to leverage each other's expertise for mutual growth and success.
