

TD SYNEX Recognized as Americas Distributor of the Year by NVIDIA

2025-03-19

Serves as key distribution partner for full NVIDIA portfolio, including newly launched NVIDIA RTX PRO™ Blackwell Desktop GPUs

FREMONT, Calif. & CLEARWATER, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- TD SYNEX, (NYSE:SNX) today announced it has been selected as an NVIDIA Partner Network (NPN) 2025 partner of the year award winner in the category of Distributor of the Year for the Americas for the second consecutive year.

As one of the world's leading distributors and solutions aggregators, TD SYNEX helps more than 150,000 customers in 100+ countries to maximize the value of technology investments, demonstrate business outcomes and unlock growth opportunities. TD SYNEX offers a comprehensive slate of data and AI solutions, including the full stack of NVIDIA accelerated platforms, which include NVIDIA AI Enterprise, NVIDIA RTX PRO-powered AI Workstations, NVIDIA DGX Platforms and NVIDIA Networking.

Through the Destination AI initiative, TD SYNEX has created reseller enablement programs and an ecosystem that enables it to serve as the go-to distributor for AI solutions in the channel. TD SYNEX collaborates closely with OEMs, cloud service providers, and software ISVs to deliver customized, scalable AI and data solutions that drive substantial business outcomes for their global partners.

The global NPN Program provides partners with the expertise required to develop, deploy and maintain world-class accelerated computing solutions designed for today's most demanding machine learning and AI workloads.

"We are tremendously honored to receive this award for the second year in a row as recognition of how our partnership with NVIDIA helps to facilitate and support AI adoption and enablement across the channel," said Reyna Thompson, President, North America, TD SYNEX. "We are deeply committed to fostering an ecosystem and marketplace that integrates NVIDIA technologies with OEMs, cloud service providers, NVIDIA cloud partners and software ISVs into aggregated solutions that are truly advancing technology and growth, and now, expanding to serve those advancing AI on local systems with the launch of the NVIDIA's Blackwell architecture for workstations."

"Deploying AI can be a complex journey for enterprises, making trusted partners with deep technology expertise and ecosystem relationships invaluable for businesses that are ready to put AI to work," said Geoff Francher, vice president, Worldwide Distribution at NVIDIA. "TD SYNEX is recognized as the Americas Distributor Partner of the Year for the second consecutive year for helping customers develop and deploy NVIDIA AI and graphics accelerated computing solutions."

TD SYNEX will continue to expand its AI and data solutions through strategic partnerships with NVIDIA, by integrating advanced NVIDIA technologies, including the new Blackwell architecture for workstations, across the company's comprehensive product offerings. Powered by the NVIDIA Blackwell architecture, the new NVIDIA RTX PRO Blackwell Desktop GPUs deliver breakthroughs in AI, ray tracing, and neural rendering that will significantly impact the way professionals work.
