In reviewing and approving, or in recommending for approval to the Board, each executive officer’s compensation, the Committee shall, among other things:

- identify, review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to such executive officer’s compensation;
- review and approve the Company’s peer companies and data sources for purposes of evaluating the Company’s compensation competitiveness and establishing the appropriate competitive positioning of the levels and mix of compensation elements;
- evaluate each executive officer’s performance in light of such goals and objectives and determine each executive officer’s compensation level and other terms of employment

based on such evaluation, including such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company;

- consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation required by Section 14A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;
- determine any long-term incentive component of each executive officer's compensation; and
- review, approve and administer any employment agreements, severance agreements or plans, change in control agreements, plans or provisions and any other compensatory arrangements with the Company's executive officers.

No executive officer should attend that portion of any meeting where such executive officer's performance or compensation is discussed, unless specifically invited by the Committee. The Chief Executive Officer may not be present during voting or deliberations related to his or her compensation.

3. Management Succession

The Committee shall, in consultation with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, periodically review the Company's management succession planning, including policies for Chief Executive Officer selection and succession in the event of the incapacitation, retirement or removal of the Chief Executive Officer, and evaluations of, and development plans for, any potential successors to the Chief Executive Officer.

4. Compensation Policies and Plans

The Committee shall review and evaluate the Company's executive compensation and benefits policies generally (subject, if applicable, to stockholder approval), including the Company's executive compensation clawback policy and the review and recommendation of any incentive-compensation and equity-based plans of the Company that are subject to Board approval. In reviewing such compensation and benefits policies, the Committee may consider the recruitment, development, promotion, retention and compensation of executive officers and other employees of the Company and any other factors that it deems appropriate.

The Committee shall oversee the administration of the Company's incentive-compensation and equity-based plans. In overseeing such equity incentive plans, the Committee shall, among other things:

- Establish guidelines, including identifying participants, performance goals and performance periods;

- Review and approve award agreements and grants made under the equity incentive plans; and
- Exercise such other power and authority as may be permitted or required under such plans.

5. Disclosure

The Committee shall prepare the Compensation Committee Report required by SEC rules to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement or Form 10-K, and the Committee shall review and discuss the Company's Compensation Disclosure and Analysis as required by SEC rules ("CD&A") with management and provide a recommendation to the Company's Board regarding the inclusion of the CD&A within the Company's proxy statement or Form 10-K, as applicable.

6. Investigations

The Committee shall investigate any matter brought to the attention of the Committee within the scope of its duties if, in the judgment of the Committee, such investigation is appropriate.

7. Reporting to the Board

The Committee shall report to the Board periodically.

At least annually, the Committee shall evaluate its own performance and report to the Board on such evaluation.

The Committee shall periodically review and assess the adequacy of this charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

8. Risk Assessment

The Committee shall review and assess risks arising from the Company's employee compensation policies and practices and whether any such risks are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Authority and Delegations

The Committee has the sole authority to retain or obtain the advice of a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser and shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any such adviser retained by the Committee. The Committee has sole authority to approve all such advisers' fees and other retention terms. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for the payment of reasonable compensation to such adviser retained by the Committee. The Committee may select such advisers, or receive advice from any other adviser, only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to that person's independence from management, including those independence factors required by law or enumerated by the New York Stock Exchange rules.

The Committee may delegate its authority to subcommittees or the Chair of the Committee when it deems it appropriate and in the best interests of the Company.
