

CORINDUS VASCULAR ROBOTICS, INC. WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

Introduction

Corindus Vascular Robotics, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and its subsidiaries (the "Company") are committed to complying with all applicable requirements concerning corporate accounting practices, accounting controls and auditing practices (collectively "Accounting Standards") and with the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code of Conduct").

The purpose of this whistleblower policy (the "Policy") is to promote open communication by directors, officers and employees of the Company in order to bring to the attention of the Company illicit or illegal business practices and conduct, including violations of federal securities laws, and provide reassurance that any such director, officer or employee of the Company will be protected from discrimination, retaliation, harassment or other reprisals for raising concerns regarding such conduct. The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") has established this Policy to (a) facilitate reporting in good faith any complaint of such conduct (a "Complaint") and participation in the investigation of such Complaint, (b) encourage proper individual conduct, (c) alert the Audit Committee of potential issues before such conduct has serious adverse consequences and (d) instill protections for bringing such conduct to the Company's attention. Examples of concerns or inappropriate conduct that might form the basis for a Complaint under this Policy may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. violation of any applicable law, rule or regulation that relates to Accounting Standards and financial disclosure;
- b. fraud or deliberate misstatement in the preparation, evaluation, review or audit of any financial statement of the Company;
- c. fraud or deliberate misstatement in the recording and maintaining of financial records of the Company;
- d. unusual or dubious payments or arrangements;
- e. non-compliance with the Company's internal policies and controls;
- f. misrepresentation or intentionally false statement by or to a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries respecting a matter contained in the financial records, reports or audit reports, any other activity that may violate federal, state or local laws or regulations or is otherwise unlawful;
- g. substantial and specific danger to the health and safety of directors, officers or employees of the Company or the general public; and
- h. non-compliance with the Company's Code of Conduct or any of the Company's other policies.

Communication of the Policy

To ensure that all directors, officers and employees of the Company (which term, for the purposes of this Policy, includes all persons who are on the payroll of the Company) are aware of this Policy, a copy will be distributed to all directors, officers and employees. New directors, officers and employees will be provided with a copy of this Policy. All directors, officers and employees will be informed whenever significant changes are made to this Policy.

Reporting Concerns

Any person with a concern relating to the Accounting Standards or compliance with the Code of Conduct by the Company should submit their concern either to the Company's telephonic hotline which is directed to the Chair of the Audit Committee (the "Chair") by calling 1-508-640-5210 or in writing submitted to the Chair electronically to auditcommittee@corindus.com or as follows, unless the concern pertains to the Chair in which case it should be submitted in writing to the Chair of the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer of the Company:

In Writing:

Personal and Confidential

The Chair of the Audit Committee
Corindus Vascular Robotics, Inc.
309 Waverley Oaks Rd., Suite 105
Waltham, MA 02452

All such reports may be made and will be treated on a confidential and anonymous basis. If an employee would like to discuss any matter with the Audit Committee, the employee should include this request in the communication including a contact telephone number should the Audit Committee deem such communication to be appropriate.

No Adverse Consequences

The submission of a Complaint may be made by an officer or employee of the Company without fear of dismissal, disciplinary action or retaliation of any kind. The Company will not discharge, discipline, demote, suspend, threaten or in any manner discriminate against any officer or other employee with respect to the terms and conditions of employment based on any lawful actions of such officer or other employee taken in good faith, including, without limitation, with respect to (i) good faith reporting of concerns or complaints regarding Accounting Standards, or otherwise specified in Section 806 of the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, (ii) compliance with the Company's Code of Conduct or (iii) providing assistance to the Audit Committee, management or any governmental, regulatory or law enforcement body, investigating a concern. The foregoing protections afforded to officers or other employees who make Complaints do not apply to actions of such officers or employee involving wrongdoing, including any actions involving wrongdoing related to the underlying facts of such Complaint.

Treatment of Submissions

Concerns will be reviewed as soon as practicable by the Audit Committee in the manner deemed to be appropriate based upon the merits of the submission and with the assistance and direction of whomever the Audit Committee thinks appropriate, which may include external legal counsel. The Audit Committee will convene, as appropriate, to review concerns and any impact on the Company's financial statements and public reports. Such meetings to review concerns will be held without Company or outside auditor personnel present unless requested by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall implement such corrective measures and do such things in an expeditious manner as it deems necessary or desirable to address the concern based upon the merits of the submission.

Where practicable and when determined to be appropriate by the Audit Committee, notice of any such corrective measures will be given to the persons who submitted the concern.

Retention of Records

The Audit Committee shall retain records relating to any concern or report of a retaliatory act and to the investigation of any such report for a period judged to be appropriate based upon the merits of the submission. The types of records to be retained by the Audit Committee shall include records of all steps taken in connection with the investigation and the results of any such investigation.

False Complaint or Report

Directors, officers and employees of the Company are informed that false or unsubstantiated Complaints may result in civil or criminal complaints or suits.

Review of Policy

The Audit Committee will review and evaluate this Policy on an annual basis to determine whether the Policy is effective in providing appropriate procedures to report violations or complaints regarding Accounting Standards or the Code of Conduct. The Audit Committee will submit any recommended changes to the Board for approval.

Questions

If you have any questions about how this Policy should be followed in a particular case, please contact the Chair of the Audit Committee.

This Whistleblower Policy was adopted by the Company's Board on October 17, 2014 and revised on April 30, 2015 and February 24, 2017.

/s/David W. Long

David W. Long, Corporate Secretary