SBA also announced today that it is reaffirming 2nd quarter total revenues and EBITDA guidance of $65 to $70 million and $19.5 to $22 million, respectively. EBITDA is defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization, non-cash charges, and unusual or non-recurring expenses. EBITDA also excludes charges related to a change in accounting principle resulting from SBA's implementation of SFAS 142, which charges will be incurred in the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2002. Results within such guidance would satisfy all financial covenants applicable to any indebtedness of the Company as of June 30, 2002.

SBA is a leading independent owner and operator of wireless communications infrastructure in the United States. SBA generates revenue from two primary businesses -- site leasing and site development services. The primary focus of the company is the leasing of antenna space on its multi-tenant towers to a variety of wireless service providers under long-term lease contracts. Since it was founded in 1989, SBA has participated in the development of over 20,000 antenna sites in the United States.
