SBA Communications Corporation Announces New Chief Financial Officer

BOCA RATON, Fla., April 19 /PRNewswire-FirstCAll/ -- SBA Communications Corporation (Nasdaq: SBAC) ("SBA") announced today that Anthony J. Macaione, 40, has joined the Company as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Macaione will serve as the Company's principal financial officer and will oversee accounting, finance, budget, financial reporting, capital markets, tax, information technology and site administration functions for SBA and its subsidiaries. Most recently, Mr. Macaione served as Senior Vice President, Corporate Controller and Chief Accounting Officer for Perry Ellis International, Inc., a $650 million, Nasdaq-listed company. Prior to Perry Ellis, Mr. Macaione served as Vice President-Finance for a division of the Liz Claiborne Co. Mr. Macaione is a Certified Public Accountant.

"We are very pleased to have Tony join our team," said Jeffrey A. Stoops, President and Chief Executive Officer. "He brings a high level of energy, enthusiasm and growth-company finance and accounting experience to SBA. With Tony, our senior management team is now complete, and we look forward to building upon our successes of the last year."

SBA is a leading independent owner and operator of wireless communications infrastructure in the United States. SBA generates revenue from two primary businesses - site leasing and site development services. The primary focus of the Company is the leasing of antenna space on its multi-tenant towers to a variety of wireless service providers under long-term lease contracts. Since it was founded in 1989, SBA has participated in the development of over 25,000 antenna sites in the United States.

For additional information about SBA, please contact Pam Kline, Vice President-Capital Markets, at (561) 995-7670 or visit our website at www.sbasite.com.

SOURCE SBA Communications Corporation