

Versace Donates 1 Million RMB to CRCF to Fight Against the Coronavirus

Versace has pledged RMB 1 Million to the Chinese Red Cross Foundation to support the Coronavirus relief efforts and to help alleviate the urgent medical supplies shortage. Our thoughts are with the people of China and all of those who have been impacted.

“My heart goes out to those affected by the Coronavirus and their families. Versace is donating 1 million RMB to help with the relief effort. We are sending our love and support and I urge everyone to help by donating to groups on the ground that assist those in need.” —Donatella Versace, Chief Creative Officer
