The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified or their earlier resignation or removal. If present, the Chair shall preside at all meetings of the Committee and set the agenda for each Committee meeting. The Committee may, from time to time, delegate duties or responsibilities to subcommittees or to one member of the Committee.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary to fulfill its responsibilities hereunder, and may meet with management or individual directors at any time it deems appropriate to discuss any matters before the Committee. A majority of the members shall represent a quorum of the Committee, and, if a quorum is present, any action approved by at least a majority of the members present shall represent the valid action of the Committee.

Any actions taken by the Committee during any period in which one or more of the members fail for any reason to meet the membership requirements set forth above shall still constitute duly authorized actions of the Committee for all corporate purposes.

The Committee shall maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

IV. COMMITTEE AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties hereunder, the Committee shall:

A. Nominating Functions

1. Evaluate and recommend to the Board director nominees for each election of directors, except that if the Company is at any time legally required by contract or otherwise to provide any third party with the ability to nominate a director, the Committee need not evaluate or propose such nomination, unless required by contract or requested by the Board.

2. Determine criteria for selecting new directors, including desired board skills and attributes, and identify and actively seek individuals qualified to become directors.

3. Consider any nominations of director candidates validly made by stockholders.

4. Review and make recommendations to the Board concerning qualifications, appointment and removal of committee members.

B. Corporate Governance Functions

Review such Code of Conduct and Ethics periodically and recommend to the Board such changes to such Code of Conduct and Ethics as the Committee shall deem appropriate, and adopt procedures for monitoring and enforcing compliance with such Code of Conduct and Ethics. Review with the Company's senior management the policies and procedures for training employees to be aware of, and comply with, the Code of Conduct and Ethics.

3. Review and investigate conduct alleged to be in violation of the Company's Code of Conduct and Ethics, and adopt, as necessary or appropriate, remedial, disciplinary, or other measures with respect to such conduct. In situations where the alleged conduct or violation involves areas within the duties and responsibilities of another committee, the Committee may request such other committee to undertake or assist in the review and investigation, as appropriate.

4. Review, at least annually, the Company's compliance with the corporate governance listing requirements of the exchange upon which the Company's stock is listed, and report to the Board regarding the same.

7. Review and recommend to the Board changes to the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, as needed.

8. Develop orientation and introductory materials for new directors and corporate governance-related continuing education for all Board members.

9. Make regular reports to the Board regarding the foregoing.

10. Review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter as appropriate and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

11. Coordinate with the Compensation Committee in its oversight function of succession planning for executive officers and consult with the Compensation Committee with respect to its recommendations to the Board on stock ownership guidelines for the Company's officers and non-employee directors.

12. Perform any other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's Bylaws and governing law, as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate.
