

PARTNER/SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT

Wheaton Precious Metals Corp. and its subsidiaries (“Wheaton”) require that our suppliers, including our streaming partners, meet or exceed certain standards of business practice. This Partner/Supplier Code of Conduct (“Supplier Code”) sets out the minimum standards of conduct expected from all Suppliers wishing to do business with Wheaton.

We define “suppliers” as a business or individual that provides goods or services to Wheaton under terms specified in an agreement, including a precious metals purchase agreement (“PMPA”).

OUR COMMITMENT

Wheaton believes it is our responsibility to partner with suppliers that share our commitment to sustainable development and the standards set out in this Supplier Code.

We believe that we have an opportunity to positively impact business practices by encouraging our suppliers in their ongoing efforts to commit to certain internationally recognized standards.

OUR STANDARDS

In furtherance of our commitment, Wheaton expects its suppliers to meet or exceed the following standards:

- (1) Compliance with Applicable Law: Suppliers comply both with the terms of their agreements with Wheaton and the laws, rules and regulations of the countries where they do business with Wheaton. These include, but are not limited to, laws relating to bribery, corruption, safety, the environment, labour, health, human rights and tax.
- (2) Business Ethics and Integrity: Suppliers perform to a standard that is in accordance with responsible industry standards and practices with respect to ethics and integrity.
- (3) Health and Safety: Suppliers have in place responsible health and safety standards to ensure a safe and healthy workplace.
- (4) Human Rights and Labour: Suppliers respect international standards on fundamental human rights in their operations wherever they are located and ensure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses. Suppliers will comply with all laws relating to human rights and labour including:

PARTNER/SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT

- respecting workers' rights to freedom of association and collective bargaining;
- prohibiting all forms of forced and compulsory labor;
- ensuring all workers are of local legal age and preventing the use of illegal child labour;
- encouraging safe working conditions; and
- preventing discrimination in employment.

(5) Environment and Sustainability: Suppliers demonstrate commitment to sustainable development. With this in mind, Wheaton supports and encourages our suppliers to adopt appropriate environmental and sustainable practices, such as promoting water and energy conservation programs, water and air emission management, biodiversity management, pollution controls, chemical and waste management, and recycling programs.

(6) Host Communities: Suppliers demonstrate a strong commitment to obtaining social acceptance for their operations and engage with stakeholders from local and regional host communities.

In furtherance of these standards, Wheaton encourages its suppliers to adopt internationally recognized responsible business and mining practices through commitments to industry and global initiatives, such as but not limited to, the United Nations Global Compact, the International Council on Mining and Metals, Mining Association of Canada's Towards Sustainable Mining Guiding Principles, and, in the case of gold mines, the World Gold Council's Responsible Gold Mining Principles and the World Gold Council's Conflict Free Gold Standards.

IMPLEMENTATION OF SUPPLIER CODE

In order to encourage the adoption of the standards set out in this Supplier Code, Wheaton will show preference for those suppliers who are able to demonstrate alignment with the standards contained in this Supplier Code.

The level to which Wheaton will require its suppliers to adhere to the standards set out in this Supplier Code will be commensurate with the significance of each supplier to our business, taking into account the nature, duration, materiality and extent of the relationship between Wheaton and such supplier. Depending on the circumstances, Wheaton will consider what means it has available to require or encourage adoption of the standards set out in this Supplier Code. This may include:

PARTNER/SUPPLIER CODE OF CONDUCT

- (1) inclusion of contractual terms between the supplier and Wheaton. For instance, Wheaton endeavors to include terms with our suppliers under PMPAs that require our suppliers to:
 - comply with all applicable laws and regulations;
 - comply with the Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act (Canada) which prohibits the offering of anything of value to any foreign public official in order to obtain or retain any advantage in business, or similar legislation;
 - retain complete and accurate books and records;
 - adhere to certain confidentiality obligations;
 - adopt good environmental practices;
 - provide certain audit and inspection rights; and
 - confirm compliance with this Supplier Code;
- (2) making the availability of funding under our Partner Corporate Social Responsibility Program (which provides funding to suppliers under PMPAs for projects supporting the communities in which they operate) subject to compliance with the standards set out in this Supplier Code;
- (3) the consideration in the selection of a supplier whether that supplier complies with the standards set out in this Supplier Code;
- (4) the public commitment by Wheaton to certain international standards that are consistent with this Supplier Code, as a demonstration of our commitment to the standards set out in this Supplier Code;
- (5) raising awareness with the appropriate representative(s) of a supplier of any identified concerns, and escalating concerns where appropriate; and
- (6) other means and manners of encouraging adherence to the standards set out in this Supplier Code.

Wheaton expects that its suppliers will support our efforts to confirm compliance with this Supplier Code through regular dialogue, monitoring, reporting and visits.
