Meet the 15 women moving forward in Torrid’s annual search for its next brand stars

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Torrid Holdings Inc. ("Torrid" or the "Company") (NYSE: CURV), a leading fashion destination for women sizes 8 to 30, today announced the top 15 finalists in its 2026 Casting Call. Selected from the top 30 semi-finalists announced earlier this month, the 15 finalists advanced following a public voting period that invited the Torrid community to help determine who would become the next faces of the brand, with more than 45,000 total votes cast.

The finalists are:

- Dominque (Converse, TX)
- Gabriela (Austin, TX)
- Jalisa (North Hollywood, CA)
- Jordy (Herriman, UT)
- Julie (Eastvale, CA)
- Karina (Guaynabo, PR)
- Kasey (Tacoma, WA)
- Miranda (Toledo, OH)
- Natalie (Schomberg, ON, Canada)
- Natalyah (San Antonio, TX)
- Rebecca (Universal City, TX)

- Tyra (Huntsville, AL)
- Val (Lynnwood, WA)
- Vicky (Santee, CA)
- Zoya (Los Angeles, CA)

These 15 finalists will travel to Los Angeles in November to participate in an exclusive Model Boot Camp co-hosted by this year's Casting Call director and Torrid model partner, Candice Huffine. The experience will include a modeling mentorship, photoshoot session, digital content creation workshop and more. Throughout Boot Camp, finalists will be evaluated by Torrid judges on their social media skills, online presence, professionalism, creativity and innovation.

“It’s been so inspiring to see how many women have embraced this opportunity to show up for themselves, step out of their comfort zones, represent the curvy community, and step confidently into the spotlight,” said Candice Huffine. “I am honored to spend time with the amazing finalists and mentor them at our Model Boot Camp, building on what makes each of them so special and encouraging their individuality to shine through. I look forward to sharing some of the lessons – and moves! – I’ve learned throughout my own modeling career, in an immersive photo shoot experience that will allow these women to grow in confidence before our eyes and shine during this next stage of competition!”

The three winners of the 2026 Torrid Casting Call will be announced on November 13 and will have the opportunity to be featured in a 2027 Torrid campaign photoshoot. Each winner will also receive a $5,000 cash prize and a Torrid wardrobe valued at $15,000.
