(Last Revised: February 23, 2021)

This Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter was adopted by the Board of Trustees (the “Board”) of Physicians Realty Trust (the “Company”).

I. Purpose

The purpose of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board is to assist the Board in discharging the Board’s responsibilities regarding:

- (i) the identification of qualified candidates to become Board members;
- (ii) the recommendation of nominees for election as trustees at the next annual meeting of shareholders (or special meeting of shareholders at which trustees are to be elected);
- (iii) the recommendation of candidates to fill any vacancies on the Board;
- (iv) the development and recommendation to the Board of a set of corporate governance guidelines and principles applicable to the Company (the “Corporate Governance Guidelines”); and
- (v) oversight of the evaluation of the Board and management of the Company.

In addition to the powers and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities delegated to it by the Board from time to time consistent with the Company’s organizational documents, this Charter, the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) listing standards and applicable laws and regulations. The powers and responsibilities delegated by the Board to the Committee in this Charter or otherwise shall be exercised and carried out by the Committee as it deems appropriate without requirement of Board approval, and any decision made by the Committee (including any decision to exercise or refrain from exercising any of the powers delegated to the Committee hereunder) shall be at the Committee’s sole discretion. While acting within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it, the Committee shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Committee shall have the power to determine which matters are within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it.

II. Membership

The Committee shall be composed of at least three trustees as determined by the Board, none of whom shall be an employee of the Company and each of whom shall satisfy the independence requirements of the NYSE, as they may be amended from time to time.

The members of the Committee, including the Chair of the Committee, shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Committee. Committee members may be removed from the Committee, with or without cause by the Board.

III. Meetings and Procedures

The Chair (or in his or her absence, a member designated by the Chair) shall preside at each meeting of the Committee and set the agendas for the Committee meetings. The Committee shall have the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company’s bylaws that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee shall meet on a regularly scheduled basis at least two times per year and more frequently as the Committee deems necessary or desirable.

All non-management trustees that are not members of the Committee may attend and observe meetings of the Committee, but shall not participate in any discussion or deliberation unless invited to do so by the Committee, and in any event shall not be entitled to vote. The Committee may, at its discretion, include in its meetings members of the Company's management, or any other person whose presence the Committee believes to be desirable and appropriate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may exclude from its meetings any non-Committee members it deems appropriate, including but not limited to, any non-management trustee that is not a member of the Committee.

The Committee may, in its sole discretion, retain any independent counsel, experts or advisors that the Committee believes to be desirable and appropriate. The Committee may also use the services of the Company's regular legal counsel or other advisors to the Company. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to any such persons employed by the Committee and for ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Committee shall have sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify trustee candidates, including sole authority to approve such search firm's fees and other retention terms.

The Chair shall report to the Board regarding the activities of the Committee at appropriate times and as otherwise requested by the Chairman of the Board.
