Agreement Enables J:COM to Deliver TiVo's Innovative Content Discovery Solutions to Over-the-Top Subscribers

SAN JOSE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- TiVo Corporation (NASDAQ: TIVO), a global leader in entertainment technology and audience insights, today announced that Jupiter Telecommunications (J:COM), one of Japan's largest cable television operators, has signed a multi-year license renewal for TiVo's G-Guide and intellectual property (IP) across Japan.

The license agreement, which covers J:COM's Video-on-Demand (VOD) services for cable TV subscribers, has now been expanded to cover OTT subscribers on mobile devices and PCs. This enables J:COM to deliver a highly-personalized entertainment discovery experience to all VOD subscribers. The agreement also extends J:COM's license to cover their over-the-top (OTT) subsidiaries.

"The agreement with J:COM is a testament to the strength of TiVo's innovative technology portfolio, in delivering the ultimate entertainment experience. Through TiVo's solutions, J:COM provides a unique, personalized and advanced entertainment discovery experience to its users in Japan, thus shaping the new era of content consumption," said Michael Hawkey, senior vice president and general manager, User Experience, TiVo.
