

Addendum to the Code of Ethical Conduct For European Employees

This Code of Ethical Conduct (“Code”) does not address specific local laws or regulations which may apply in the jurisdiction in which you work or are employed by United Rentals outside the United States. In all circumstances it must be ensured that United Rental’s business is transacted in accordance with relevant international, national and local laws, policies and industry best practice applicable to the jurisdiction in which such business is transacted. If any part of this Code conflicts with local law and regulations where you work, such laws and regulations will take precedence and only sections permitted by applicable law and regulations will apply. Where local law imposes stricter requirements than this Code, those applicable laws will take precedence over this Code. To the extent monetary figures are quoted in this Code in United States Dollars, the equivalent amount in local currency (for example, Euro/€ or Sterling/£) shall apply in your jurisdiction.
