

United Rentals Lobbying Report

2021 & 2022

Prohibition on Corporate Political Activity

As stated in our Code of Ethical Conduct, political contributions by the company of any kind (money, time, goods or services) are prohibited, directly or indirectly, even when permitted by law. This includes a prohibition on company contributions to any candidate, campaign, political party, political committee (e.g., any political action committee or ballot measure committee), 501(c)(4) organization and any other tax-exempt organization that may use company contributions for political purposes. Additionally, the company is restricted from financially supporting events where a portion of the funds will be used, directly or indirectly, to fund political candidates or political parties, election campaigns or related expenses, such as communications. Prohibited financial support includes the purchase of tickets and the providing of goods or services.

Further, the company does not make payments to trade associations or other industry groups to be used specifically for political purposes, and it is the company's policy to instruct trade associations not to use company funds for contributions to federal, state, or local candidates, independent campaign expenditures, or for other election related purposes or activities. This policy does not prohibit trade associations from using a portion of company funds for lobbying expenditures that are not used for political contributions.

Lobbying Activity

In accordance with our Code of Ethical Conduct, United Rentals may make expenditures to advocate particular viewpoints on public policy issues or support intermediaries, such as lobbyists, that advocate on our company's behalf. All lobbying expenditures were made in compliance with the company's policies on political contributions and activities.
