United Rentals Releases Ninth Corporate Responsibility Report

10/21/2021

STAMFORD, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- United Rentals, Inc. (NYSE: URI), the world's largest equipment rental company, today announced the release of its ninth Corporate Responsibility Report documenting its progress in 2020 and momentum into 2021. The report covers all major aspects of the company's corporate responsibility framework, including its commitment to reduce the intensity of its greenhouse gas emissions by 35% by 2030.

Among the highlights in the report are United Rentals' in-depth response to COVID-19, cultural workshops on social and racial equity, a U.S. safety recordable incident rate consistently below 1.0 each quarter, and a continued shift toward low- and zero- emission equipment, with electric or hybrid units now representing approximately 20% of the company's rental fleet.

Matthew Flannery, chief executive officer of United Rentals, said, "We're pleased that our 2020 Corporate Responsibility Report documents not just our resilience in a challenging year, but also our progress in fostering our values. As we explore new avenues for sustainability, we'll continue to invest in growing our ability to make a positive impact."

Earlier this year, United Rentals was named one of America's Most Responsible Companies for 2021 by Newsweek magazine in partnership with Statista. This is the second consecutive year the company has been recognized on the list.

The United Rentals Corporate Responsibility Report has been prepared in accordance with the Global Reporting Initiative's GRI Sustainability Reporting Standards, and it includes disclosures from the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB) Standards and responses to recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD).
