NEWS RELEASE

Adtalem Global Education Completes Divestiture of Financial Services Segment

2022-03-10

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Adtalem Global Education (NYSE: ATGE), a leading healthcare educator, announced today that it has completed the divestiture of its Financial Services segment, which includes ACAMS (Association of Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialists), Becker Professional Education and OnCourse Learning, to a consortium of Wendel Group and Colibri Group in an all-cash transaction for $1 billion.

Wendel Group, based in Paris, is one of Europe's largest listed investment firms. Colibri Group, a Gridiron Capital company based in St. Louis, helps millions of professionals manage and advance their careers through online learning solutions.

"We are incredibly proud of our Financial Services segment and the growth and impact it has achieved over the last several years. I am confident that these brands and businesses will continue to thrive under new ownership," said Steve Beard, president and CEO, Adtalem Global Education. "The completion of this transaction is a catalyst for our go-forward strategy to be the leading provider of professional talent to the healthcare industry. Through our sharpened focus, strengthened balance sheet, and clarity of purpose, we are well-positioned to deliver substantial value to all our stakeholders."

As previously announced, the company will deploy approximately $770 million of the approximate $820 million in net proceeds from the divestiture to pay down debt. The company anticipates annualized interest expense savings of approximately $40 million as a result of paying down $770 million in debt, which it intends to do within 30 days.
