TTS and the Center for Financial Training to host the 8th annual Bank Trainers Conference and Expo

2019-12-03

Bank and credit union training professionals from across the nation attend to learn trends, best practices and new training techniques

BROOKFIELD, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- The 8th annual Bank Trainers Conference and Expo, sponsored by TTS, an OnCourse Learning Company, and the Center for Financial Training (CFT), will be held in Dallas, Texas, from June 23-25, 2020. This annual educational training conference attracts hundreds of bank and credit union training professionals from across the United States and the world who meet to learn about trends in the industry, new training techniques and best practices, and to network with their peers.

The Bank Trainers Conference and Expo is the only “train the trainer” conference designed specifically for bank and credit union training professionals. The event offers a variety of learning experiences, including pre-conference workshops, training-specific seminars featuring industry leading speakers, networking sessions, vendor exhibits and special events.

“We started this conference more than seven years ago as a way to bring training professionals in the financial industry together in one location to share ideas, learn from industry experts and get recharged,” said Mark Bennett, founder of TTS. “Now, as we look toward our 8th annual conference, it has exceeded our expectations. Many of our attendees are now familiar faces as they come back year after year and interact with colleagues they met in prior years. We also love the enthusiasm of new trainers and training managers as they learn from our great lineup of speakers and find new networking friends. The value from attending this conference will far exceed the investment.”

Keynote Speakers

Speaker Hall of Fame member, Steve Gilliland, will kick off the conference on June 23rd, presenting “Making a Difference.” Gilliland, a master storyteller, brilliant comedian and accomplished author, appears daily on Sirius XM Radio’s Laugh USA and Jeff & Larry’s Comedy Roundup.

Kelly Swanson is an award-winning storyteller and accomplished author, also known for her work as a

Huffington Post contributor and a cast member of The Fashion Hero television show that airs on Amazon Prime. Swanson will wrap up the event on June 25th with her presentation, “The Story Formula: Connect and Engage through the Power of Strategic Storytelling.”
