Global Supplier Code of Conduct

Universal Display Corporation (UDC or, the Company) is committed to responsible sourcing and ethical business practices. UDC also expects its suppliers as well as those who supply its subsidiaries to conduct their business operations in a manner consistent with UDC's business ethics policies and code of conduct, as follows:

- Comply with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations of their countries of operation, including, but not limited to, all applicable trade agreements, antitrust and fair competition, anti-corruption, employment, working time, collective bargaining, health and safety, product safety, and environmental laws, regulations and practices;
- Provide a safe and healthy working environment free from discrimination, harassment, or abuse.
- Prohibit forced or compulsory labor.
- Prohibit use of child labor by adhering to minimum employment age requirements.
- Pay applicable legal wages and benefits to all employees at levels required in the industry.
- Protect the environment by endeavoring to reduce the use of hazardous materials, the generation and discharge of waste streams, and the use of energy and other non-renewable resources. Encourage conservation, reuse, and recycling.
- Respect and protect confidential and intellectual property including information, processes and technology. Comply with all UDC requirements for maintaining passwords, security and privacy.
- Avoid improper reciprocal agreements, including anything that could have the appearance of a conflict of interest.
- Avoid insider trading by not buying or selling UDC or any other company's securities when in possession of information that is not available to the investing public; and
