Political Involvement Policy

Universal Display Corporation (UDC) does not make contributions to candidates or political parties in federal elections, at the state level or outside the United States. UDC will file all information statements required by United States federal and state campaign finance and disclosure laws.

UDC makes no direct lobbying expenditures. Prior approval from the President of UDC is required before any UDC funds can be used for lobbying purposes. UDC complies with all applicable laws that require reporting on lobbying and related activities.

UDC does not control, direct or influence any employee's political activities or affiliations. Employees engaging in personal political activity must do so as private citizens, not during paid work hours, and without using company resources for political purposes. Employees must comply with all applicable laws in this regard, and those individual efforts must not in any way suggest UDC's support. Any employee who believes that there is a conflict between applicable law and our policies, or who feels that a violation of a policy has occurred may report such through the Director of Human Resources.

UDC reviews this policy periodically and we reserve the right to update, change or replace any part of it at any time, at our discretion, with or without prior notice.
