WorldBlu Certifies WD-40 Company as a "Most Freedom-Centered Workplace™" for 2015

5/21/2015

SAN DIEGO, May 21, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- WD-40 Company (NASDAQ:WDFC), a global marketing organization dedicated to creating positive lasting memories by developing and selling products that solve problems in workshops, factories and homes around the world, was acknowledged today as one of WorldBlu's "Most Freedom-Centered Workplaces™" for 2015.

WorldBlu specializes in freedom-centered, democratic organizational design and leadership. The organization announced today it has certified 26 organizations as part of its ninth annual WorldBlu List of Most Freedom-Centered Workplaces™ published annually on "Freedom at Work Day."

"We are honored to be recognized by WorldBlu," said Stan Sewitch, vice president, global organizational development. "At WD-40 Company we consider our people to be our most valuable resource. Many years ago we set out to create and sustain a culture that would consistently promote meaningful work life and high employee engagement. Today's acknowledgment tells us we are on the right path, even though we know we have a lot more work to do."

Organizations that made the list ranged in size from five to 65,000 employees representing over $15 billion in combined annual revenue. For-profit and non-profit organizations from across the US, Canada, Mexico, Netherlands, Denmark, Malaysia, Haiti, New Zealand, and Romania made the WorldBlu List from a diversity of industries including technology, manufacturing, healthcare, retail, agriculture and services.
