Apex Systems Named 2026 Infor Partner Award Winner for Americas

Source and Co-Sell Partner of the Year

2026-03-31

RICHMOND, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Apex Systems, a leading global technology solutions firm and one of seven ASGN brands that will be unifying under the new Everforth brand (NYSE: ASGN), today announced that it has been named a 2026 Infor Partner Award Network (IPN) winner for Americas Source and Co-Sell Partner of the Year. This award recognizes Apex's achievements in delivering value and innovation to customers through its partnership with Infor.

IPN Awards highlight outstanding partners for their contributions to customer success, innovation, and measurable business impact across the global Infor partner ecosystem. Apex has been recognized for the breadth of its capabilities, multi-industry experience, and broad coverage of the Infor enterprise applications portfolio, including the Infor Velocity suite, an all-inclusive package of AI solutions, tools, and expertise.

"This recognition signals Infor's confidence in Apex's enterprise platform capabilities and the innovative outcomes we deliver for clients," said Robin Irvine, SVP, ERP Consulting Services, US and EMEA, Apex Systems. "In a world increasingly shaped by AI, enterprise software plays a critical role in enabling organizations to fully realize the potential of their data. We are committed to collaborative innovation with Infor, together enabling our clients to modernize their technology platforms, unlock actionable data, and achieve value with greater speed."

Enterprise platforms are increasingly essential as organizations implement AI, because they serve as the system of record for the operational and financial data that power artificial intelligence. By modernizing and extending enterprise platforms and integrating governed, high-quality data across the enterprise, Apex helps organizations unlock trusted data pipelines, accelerate AI use cases, and drive measurable business outcomes.

"We are proud to recognize Apex Systems in Infor's augural partner awards," said Jeanne Newberry, SVP, Ecosystem and Business Development, Infor. "Our partners are essential to how we grow the business, reach new markets, and deliver better outcomes for customers. Apex plays a critical role in delivering industry expertise, innovation, and customer success across our ecosystem. The Infor Partner Awards celebrate organizations like Apex that embody the spirit of mutual benefit — driving success for their customers, their own businesses, and Infor together.”

Apex continues to invest in strengthening and expanding key technology alliance partnerships, working closely with organizations like Infor to solve complex challenges, enhance platform adoption, and support clients as they pursue their strategic IT modernization priorities.

About ASGN Incorporated, transitioning to Everforth

ASGN Incorporated (NYSE: ASGN) is a leading provider of IT solutions for commercial and government clients. In November 2025, ASGN announced its intent to rebrand to Everforth, a new parent brand unifying its seven brands — Apex Systems, Creative Circle, CyberCoders, ECS, GlideFast, TopBloc, and Quinnox — under a single identity.

During the transition, ASGN will continue operating under its existing commercial and government brands. Clients, partners, and suppliers can expect a seamless experience, led by the same trusted teams with greater resources and stronger cross-brand collaboration. ASGN's transition to Everforth will take place in the first half of 2026.

Everforth is a leading technology and digital engineering company with six core solution areas: AI and data, cloud and infrastructure, digital engineering, customer experience, cybersecurity, and enterprise platforms. Through proprietary assets, accelerators, and proven expertise, Everforth delivers measurable outcomes that help organizations adapt, innovate, and thrive.

Everforth: Adapt and Thrive.
