

Charter of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors of Novozymes A/S

1. Status

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee (the "Committee") is a committee of the Board of Directors of Novozymes A/S (the "Board of Directors") established in accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors.

2. Purpose

The Committee shall assist the Board of Directors with the oversight of:

- a) The competence and composition profile of the Board of Directors
- b) Nomination of candidates for the Board of Directors
- c) Nomination of candidates for the board committees
- d) Remuneration policy for the members of the Board of Directors, registered members of the Executive Leadership Team and the company
- e) Remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors and its committees
- f) Composition and performance of the Executive Leadership Team
- g) Remuneration and employment terms of the Executive Leadership Team
- h) Other tasks

3. Responsibilities

The primary function of the Committee is to assist the Board of Directors by reviewing information and analyses within and/or related to the areas of oversight, cf. clause 2, and based on that present recommendations to the Board of Directors.

a) The competence and composition profile of the Board of Directors

The Committee shall annually analyse which general competences are necessary to be represented on the Board of Directors. Based on such analysis, the Committee shall review the competence profile of the Board of Directors and propose changes as it deems necessary.

The Committee shall annually review developments in respect of required and desired diversity aspects for boards of directors and review the composition of the Board of Directors in relation to diversity.

The Committee shall review the structure, size and composition of the Board of Directors and propose changes as it deems necessary.

b) Nomination of candidates for the Board of Directors

The Committee shall regularly discuss succession planning for the Board of Directors and present proposals and recommendations in connection therewith.

The Committee shall prepare a process for nomination of candidates for the Board of Directors at the next annual shareholders' meeting.

The Committee shall identify and recommend to the Board of Directors a specific proposal for nomination of individual members for election or re-election at the annual shareholders' meeting as Chair of the Board of Directors, Vice Chair of the Board of Directors and ordinary board members and shall prepare the Board of Directors' recommendation to the annual shareholders' meeting. As deemed necessary, the Committee may consult major shareholders to seek opinions.

The Committee shall evaluate candidates proposed by relevant persons, including shareholders, for the Board of Directors' further consideration.

c) Nomination of candidates for the board committees

Further, the Committee shall prepare for and - after consultation with the respective chair of a committee - present to the Board of Directors a specific proposal for election or re-election of individual members as board committee members.

d) Remuneration Principles

The Committee shall at least once annually review the remuneration policies and recommend to the Board of Directors any changes it deems necessary thereto to be proposed by the Board of Directors for adoption by the annual shareholders' meeting. If required or appropriate, the Committee shall also review other parts of the company's remuneration structures and/or policies.

e) Remuneration of the Board of Directors

The Committee shall annually evaluate the remuneration of the Board of Directors, including the structure and level, against relevant benchmarks and in due time present a proposal for remuneration of the Board of Directors and its committees in respect of the next calendar year.

The Committee shall review the annual reporting on remuneration of members of the Board of Directors as such is required by applicable law or deemed appropriate to be included in Novozymes' financial reporting.

f) Composition and performance of the Executive Leadership Team

The Committee shall annually assess the structure, size and composition of the Executive Leadership Team.

The Committee shall annually assess the qualifications, knowledge and experience of the individual members of the Executive Leadership Team and report to the Board of Directors in this respect.

The Committee shall annually conduct a performance appraisal of the Executive Leadership Team, including the Executive Leadership Team's compliance with the guidelines for the Executive Leadership Team adopted by the Board of Directors.

The Committee shall monitor and advise the Board of Directors on the overall succession planning for the Executive Leadership Team.

The Committee shall evaluate candidates proposed by relevant persons, including shareholders, if any, for the Board of Directors' further consideration.

The Committee shall annually assess the competences, knowledge and experience of the two governing bodies combined (the Board of Directors and the Executive Leadership Team).

g) Remuneration and employment terms of the Executive Leadership Team

The Committee shall propose to the Board of Directors base salary and key terms including severance packages for the registered members of the Executive Leadership Team and approve all other employment contract terms for the registered members of the Executive Leadership Team.

The Committee shall annually evaluate the executive remuneration, including its structure and level, against relevant benchmarks and in due time present a proposal for adjustments in base salary (incl. pension contributions), short-term incentives and level of benefits for the registered members of the Executive Leadership Team in respect of the next calendar year. The Committee shall ensure that the remuneration is in compliance with the company's remuneration policy and the assessment of the performance of the persons concerned.

The Committee shall propose to the Board of Directors the structure for a potential long-term incentive program for the Executive Leadership Team.

The Committee shall propose any settlement of claims in connection with executives' termination.

The Committee shall monitor the administration of executive remuneration.

The Committee shall review the annual reporting on remuneration of executives that is required by applicable law or deemed appropriate to be included in Novozymes' financial reporting.

h) Other tasks

The Committee shall carry out such other tasks on an ad hoc basis as specifically decided by the Board of Directors.

4. Membership

The Committee shall at least consist of three members. Members of the Committee are elected for a one-year term until the next annual shareholders' meeting by and among the members of the Board of Directors. Election usually takes place at the board meeting following the annual shareholders' meeting. However, any member of the Committee can be removed by the Board of Directors at any time.

One of the members of the Committee shall be designated by the Board of Directors as Chair of the Committee.

The majority of the members of the Committee shall qualify as independent as defined by Danish law and as a whole have the relevant expertise.

Members of the Executive Leadership Team, employees and/or other persons shall attend meetings at the invitation of the Committee.

5. Miscellaneous

The Committee may engage independent counsel and other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties. The Committee shall not consult with the same external advisors as the Executive Leadership Team of the company.

The secretary of the Board of Directors shall be the secretary of the Committee.

The Committee shall have appropriate funding as determined necessary by the Committee for the fulfilment of its tasks and duties.

The Committee shall once a year:

- a) conduct a performance evaluation of the Committee and report such evaluation to the Board of Directors
- b) evaluate the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board of Directors

6. Meetings

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines appropriate, but at least two times each year.

Meetings shall normally be convened with no less than eight days' written notice to all members of the Committee, and such notice shall include an agenda for the meeting in question. Any written material relating to the individual agenda items shall, to the extent possible, be forwarded to the members together with the notice convening the meeting.

The Committee shall maintain, through its secretary, minutes of the Committee meetings.

Under special circumstances, a committee resolution may be passed over the phone or in writing. In such cases, the proposed resolution shall be forwarded to the members and the Chair shall subsequently seek to obtain a written, oral or electronically transferred statement from all members of the Committee and arrange for the recording of the resolution in the minutes of the coming meeting.

7. Quorum

The Committee forms a quorum when two or more of its members are present. Resolutions are passed by simple majority.

8. Nomination and Remuneration Committee Member Fee

Each member of the Committee shall receive an annual fee to be fixed – together with the fixing of the fee to the members of the Board of Directors – at the annual shareholders' meeting in connection with the adoption of the audited annual report; provided, however, that the Chair and the Vice Chair shall not receive any such supplementary payment if elected to the Committee.

9. Reporting to the Board of Directors

The Committee has been set up with the sole purpose of facilitating the transaction of business by the Board of Directors and must not cause significant information required by all members of the Board of Directors to only be communicated to the Committee, or that the necessary processing required in the Board of Directors be unduly limited or omitted. All decisions will be made by the Board of Directors except as expressly stated in this charter. The Board of Directors remains fully responsible for all decisions prepared by the Committee.

In addition to the previous mentioned reporting, the Committee shall regularly inform the Board of Directors of discussions and present recommendations to the Board of Directors. Further, the Board of Directors shall have access to the minutes of meetings of the Committee as well as all material presented to or prepared by the Committee.

10. Adoption of Charter

This Charter has been approved by the Board of Directors at its meeting on February 22, 2017.
