

COVID Protocol for Annual Meeting of Stockholders

In order to attend the annual meeting of stockholders in person, the stockholder or other participant must complete a certification that the individual has been immunized for COVID. The certification will be provided upon entry into the building. If the stockholder or other participant has not been vaccinated or does not complete the certification, other accommodations will be considered.