TSX Company Services and Solium Announce Strategic Alliance

11/8/2016

Market open ceremony marks new agreement to provide cloud-based corporate solutions to public and private companies

November 8, 2016 (TORONTO) – TSX Company Services, TMX Group's listed company support division, today announced a strategic alliance with Solium Capital Inc. (Solium) (TSX:SUM), a leading provider of cloud-enabled services for global equity administration, financial reporting and compliance. The agreement, effective immediately, seeks to leverage the depth of capabilities across the two organizations to offer enhanced services to both public and private companies.

"We are excited to enter into this alliance with Solium, an innovative industry leader, to broaden and invigorate our client offering," said Loui Anastasopoulos, President, TSX Trust and Managing Director, TSX Company Services, TMX Group. "As we continue our work to address priority needs in the market place, we believe Solium's leading edge technology and services are a natural extension of our existing suite of transfer agent, trust and private markets solutions."

"TSX Company Services is a powerful brand in the Canadian market," said Cameron Hall, EVP Canada, Solium. "The strategic relationship between TMX and Solium will help Canadian-listed companies access high quality, unified solutions to manage their equity compensation and savings plans. This flexible, integrated solution is superior to anything in the marketplace today."

To celebrate the agreement, Mr. Hall and several of Solium's Board Members, will join Mr. Anastasopoulos, this morning at 9:30 a.m. to open the market.
