About the Canadian Climate Investor Conference

The Canadian Climate Investor Conference brings together growth oriented, publicly traded clean energy and technology companies, and climate conscious investors, to discover ways to accelerate the deployment of capital needed to build a more sustainable future for Canadians.

This conference is organized by founding members RE Royalties, UGE International, ReVolve Renewables, Solar Alliance, Evergen Infrastructure, Electrovaya, Clearblue Technologies, Westbridge Renewables, Synex Renewables, and Carbon Streaming. Founding partner sponsors include the TMX Group, Canaccord Genuity, Water Tower Research, Integral Wealth Management, and McMillan LLP.

The conference is FREE to attend for climate and impact focused institutional investors, financial institutions, portfolio managers, retail investors, advisors, and clean energy professionals to learn and discuss directly with companies on solutions to create a clean and secure future, address critical climate mitigation issues, and increasing clean energy and technology investments.
