LANSING, Mich., February 18, 2024 — Neogen® Corporation (NASDAQ: NEOG), an innovative leader in food safety solutions, announced today the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) has withdrawn its unfair labor practices claim against the Company. The claim was withdrawn following a mutual agreement, with no admission of wrongdoing by Neogen.

In the coming weeks, Lansing warehouse shipping clerks and material handling employees will have the opportunity to vote in an election to determine whether they wish to unionize.

“At Neogen, we are dedicated to fostering a supportive and equitable workplace where employees feel valued and heard,” said Amy Rocklin, Chief Legal and Compliance Officer. “We respect our employees’ rights and we prioritize a positive work environment. Neogen remains committed to supporting our employees throughout this process and will continue to comply fully with all legal obligations related to the election.”
