Teladoc Provides Free Health Visits to Those in Hurricane Harvey Evacuation Areas

8/29/2017

PURCHASE, NY, Aug. 29, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Teladoc, Inc. (NYSE:TDOC), is providing free general medical care to victims of Hurricane Harvey. Residents who have been displaced by or are otherwise impacted by the storm can access treatment for many non-emergency illnesses by calling 855-220-4585.

“As hundreds of thousands of Americans are facing a time of need, Teladoc is working to make sure that they can count on readily available access to high quality care, 24/7. Our call center reps and board certified and state-licensed physicians are standing by to help those families who have been displaced from their doctors and regular routines, but who still need non-emergency medical care,” explained Lewis Levy, MD, chief medical officer, Teladoc.

Teladoc is offering the free service to all victims of the hurricane, not just Teladoc members. Among those adult and pediatric conditions that can be effectively diagnosed and treated are common conditions including sinus problems, respiratory infection, allergies, cold and flu symptoms and many other non-emergency illnesses.
