

Employees Deliver Local Impact Nationwide During Sensata Technologies' Day of Service

2026-05-13

- Nearly 400 U.S. employees volunteered with 23 nonprofits across seven states.
- The annual Day of Service is part of the Sensata Serves Volunteer Program, which provides eight paid volunteer hours annually for U.S. employees.

SWINDON, United Kingdom--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Sensata Technologies (NYSE: ST) held its annual U.S. Day of Service on May 7, when approximately 400 employees volunteered with 23 nonprofit partners across the country. Now in its eighth year, the Day of Service brings employees together to support the communities where they live and work.

Employees volunteered at Books are Wings, among other US nonprofits, on Sensata Technologies' Annual Day of Service on May 7, 2026.

Employees – including Sensata's Strategy Leadership Team and Employee Resource Groups – completed more than 25 service projects with long-time community partners. Some of the organizations are funded by the Sensata Foundation, the Company's philanthropic arm. Employees volunteered with nonprofits across CA, ID, MA, MI, MN, RI and VT, with additional activities planned at Sensata's VA site later this month.

Projects ranged from larger-scale and skill-based efforts – such as constructing an archery station, installing irrigation systems and building garden beds – to essential activities that help nonprofits expand their impact, including:

- Construction and facility improvements at Attleboro Norton YMCA (MA) and Habitat for Humanity (VT)
- Environmental stewardship and restoration at Mass Audubon (MA) and Adopt-a-Highway (ID)
- Food access and warehouse support at Rhode Island Community Food Bank (RI), Rise Against Hunger (CA) and

VEAP (MN)

- Family and housing services at Crossroads Rhode Island (RI) and Greater Attleboro Area Council for Children (MA)
- Literacy support at Books Are Wings (RI)

“We’re proud of our long history of community stewardship, and our Day of Service is a part of this commitment,” said Lynne Caljouw, EVP and Chief Human Resources Officer. “We thank our employees who make this commitment possible, generously sharing their time and talents to support communities across the country. Their service throughout the year makes a real difference while reinforcing the culture of giving that defines Sensata.”

Through Sensata Serves, the Company’s volunteer program, U.S. employees receive eight paid hours each year to give back to communities beyond the Day of Service. In 2025, that year-round effort included more than 5,500 volunteer hours contributed by our employees in support of 57 nonprofit organizations.

Learn more about Sensata’s commitment to being a neighbor of choice in communities where it operates. Click here for information about how the Sensata Foundation is continuing the Company’s legacy of supporting communities, including its annual grant program.

About Sensata Technologies

Sensata Technologies is a global industrial technology company striving to create a safer, cleaner, more efficient and electrified world. Through its broad portfolio of mission-critical sensors, electrical protection components and sensor-rich solutions, Sensata helps its customers address increasingly complex engineering and operating performance requirements. With more than 16,000 employees and global operations in 13 countries, Sensata serves customers in the automotive, heavy vehicle & off-road, industrial, and aerospace markets. Learn more at sensata.com and follow Sensata on LinkedIn, Facebook, Instagram and X.

Investor Contact:

James Entwistle

+1 (508) 954-1561

jentwistle@sensata.com

Media Contact:

Ann Jordan

ajordan@sensata.com

Source: Sensata Technologies