

Employees Give Back Across the US on Sensata Technologies' Seventh Annual Day of Service

2025-05-14

- More than 250 US employees participated in community service projects with nonprofits across six states.
- The annual Day of Service is part of the Company's long tradition of giving back and commitment to community stewardship.

SWINDON, United Kingdom--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Sensata Technologies (NYSE: ST), held its seventh annual Day of Service in the US on May 8, when employees from the Company's US sites gave their time for nonprofit projects.

Employees volunteered at Community Servings as part of Sensata's Annual Day of Service on May 8, 2025.

More than 250 employees worked on 28 service projects to support 26 charitable organizations including long-time community partners and grantees of the Sensata Foundation, the Company's philanthropic arm. Employees, including Sensata's Strategy Leadership Team and Employee Resource Groups, participated in community projects with nonprofits in ID, MA, MI, MN, RI and VT.

The Day of Service is part of Sensata's long and cherished tradition of giving back to communities where employees live or work. In 2024, 45% of US employees volunteered over 6,500 hours with 69 nonprofits throughout the year.

This year's Day of Service projects included:

- Clean-up activities at Robbins Children's Programs, MA and Sojourner House, RI.
- Gardening and landscaping activities at VEAP, MN; Friends of the Horticulture Farm, VT.
- Meal packaging at Community Servings, MA and Franklin Food Pantry, MA.
- Skill-based projects at the Attleboro Industrial Museum, MA; Mass Audubon, MA; Franklin Farm, RI; and Habitat for Humanity, VT.

- Sorting projects for Books Are Wings, RI and AmenityAid, RI.
- Warehouse help at Idaho Foodbank, ID; Forgotten Harvest, MI; and Rhode Island Community Food Bank, RI.

The Company's Sensata Serves Volunteer Program encourages employee volunteerism and provides eight hours of paid time every year for US-based employees to engage in service activities they choose, including the Day of Service. Sensata Serves has also established a Volunteer Recognition Program, including the annual Steve Reynolds Impact Award, to honor employees who generously give their time and talents.

"Our annual Day of Service is a key part of our culture of giving back and one that our community partners eagerly anticipate," said David Britton, President, Sensata Foundation. "It shows the collective impact possible in a single day when employees volunteer with charitable organizations across multiple states."
