

November 25, 2014

CACI Awarded $62.5 Million Contract to Support Counter Narco-Terrorism for U.S. Central Command

Work Will Help Disrupt Drug Trafficking and Terrorist Networks in Central Asia

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE:CACI) announced today it has been awarded a $62.5 million contract to support counter narco-terrorism (CNT) work for U.S. Central Command (CENTCOM) in Afghanistan and throughout CENTCOM's area of responsibility (AOR). This task order was awarded under the Rapid Response 3rd Generation contract vehicle and represents continuing work for CACI, reinforcing its presence in its Integrated Security Solutions market area.

CENTCOM's CNT mission involves establishing and supporting CNT networks and infrastructure, protecting U.S. Armed Forces conducting CNT work, and providing law enforcement training to host nations in its AOR to disrupt narco-terrorist activities and organizations. CACI will provide support in areas such as program management, advisement, training, and logistics for both CENTCOM and its military and civilian partner agencies.

CACI has been supporting this CENTCOM mission for the past five years with its full cadre of subject matter experts in all aspects of CNT. This team consists of former top-ranking military officers and officials from civilian agencies intimately involved in CNT work. The high-level experience of CACI personnel in combatting drug trafficking and terrorism gives them the functional expertise to support CENTCOM in developing measurable methods and goals for the program.

John Mengucci, CACI's Chief Operating Officer and President of U.S. Operations, said, "This award allows CACI to continue to provide low-risk, quick-reaction, and agile support for the U.S. Central Command's dynamic mission requirements in counter narco-terrorism work. CACI's experienced personnel have developed metrics-driven solutions that ensure accountability for its team and quantifiable results for the customer."

According to CACI President and Chief Executive Officer Ken Asbury, "CACI has built its strategic growth plan around supporting vital U.S. government missions. Our continued work on this counter narco-terrorism program is a cornerstone in ensuring the safety of our Armed Forces conducting this dangerous assignment and ultimately helping to shield our citizens at home from the ravages of terrorism and drugs."

CACI provides information solutions and services in support of national security missions and government transformation for Intelligence, Defense, and Federal Civilian customers. A Fortune magazine World's Most Admired Company in the IT Services industry, CACI is a member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies, the Russell 2000 Index, and the S&P SmallCap600 Index. CACI provides dynamic careers for over 16,200 employees in 120 offices worldwide. Visit www.caci.com.

There are statements made herein which do not address historical facts, and therefore could be interpreted to be forward-looking statements as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated include, but are not limited to, the risk factors set forth in CACI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2014, and other such filings that CACI makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time. Any forward-looking statements should not be unduly relied upon and only speak as of the date hereof.

CACI-Contract

CACI International Inc
Corporate Communications and Media:
Jody Brown, Executive Vice President, Public Relations
703-841-7801
jbrown@caci.com or Investor Relations:
David Dragics, Senior Vice President, Investor Relations
866-606-3471

ddragics@caci.com

Source: CACI International Inc

News Provided by Acquire Media